Technovation, 13(8) (1993) 551–553

Contents of Volume 13, 1993

Number 1

Guest Editorial

The changing nature of the innovation process
Roy Rothwell 1

Refereed papers

Technological growth in the Italian economy: some indicators compared
Andrea Raggi (Bologna, Italy) 3

Tax policies affecting R&D: an international comparison
Dennis Patrick Leyden and Albert N. Link (Greensboro, North Carolina, USA) 17

Strategy making and environment: an organizational life cycle perspective
Yash P. Gupta (Louisville, Kentucky, USA) and David C.W. Chin (Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada) 27

The development and application of interactive models of industrial technology transfer
R.A.F. Seaton and M. Cordey-Hayes (Cranfield, UK) 45

Number 2

Refereed papers

University scientists as entrepreneurs: a special case of technology transfer and high-tech venturing
Karel A. Samsom (Nijenrode, The Netherlands) and Michael A. Gurdon (Burlington, Vermont, USA) 63

Basic points for a strategic production organization requiring simultaneous strategies
Hans Corsten and Thomas Will (Eichstätt-Ingolstadt, Germany) 73

Technological development in Brazilian business: four behavioral types
Erno I. Paulinyi (Brasilia, Brazil) 83

The information content of technology transfers: a transactions cost analysis of the machine tool industry
Howard Davies (Hong Kong) 93

A new look at the US patterns of federal R&D spending: preliminary lessons for newly industrializing economies
J.A. Pimenta-Bueno and R.T.S. Corrêa (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil) 101

 0166-4972/93/$06.00 © 1993 Elsevier Science Publishers Ltd

Number 3

Refereed papers

Mismanaging innovation: the Yugo car enterprise (1962–1992)
Michael Palairet (Edinburgh, UK) 117

Technology transfer and intellectual property: an analysis of the NASA approach
V. William Wessel (Hampton, Virginia, USA) 133

Business information and regional economic development: some conceptual observations
R.P. Oakey and T. White (Manchester, UK) 147

A novel approach to product design and development in a concurrent engineering environment
Shad Dowlatshahi (Platteville, Wisconsin, USA) 161

Number 4

Refereed papers

Efficiency of government intervention in technical change in telecommunications: ten national economies compared Hariolf Grupp (Karlsruhe, Germany) 187

Foreign patenting and trade with regard to competitiveness
Hajime Eto (Tsukuba, Japan) and Jung Hee Lee (Seoul, Korea) 221

The emphasis of management and economic concepts for mechanical engineers: a historical reassessment of Towne's article published 100 years ago
Katsundo Hitomi (Kyoto, Japan) 235

Continuous improvement in British manufacturing
John Bessant, Jane Burnell, Rebecca Harding and Stephen Webb (Brighton, UK) 241

Number 5

Refereed papers

A framework for manufacturing strategy analysis in the wake of reducing product life-cycles: a case of a multinational in a newly industrializing country
Khalid Akhtar and Mario T. Tabucanon (Bangkok, Thailand) 265

Government support of computer integrated manufacturing in Germany: first results of an impact analysis
Gunter Lay (Karlsruhe, Germany) 283

Government's role in developing a high-tech industry: the case of Taiwan's semiconductor industry
Chung-Yuan Liu (Hsinchu, Taiwan) 299

Cognitive style and use-innovativeness for applications software in home computing: implications for new product strategy
Gordon R. Foxall and Seema Bhate 311

Number 6

Refereed papers

Environmental uncertainty, strategic planning, and technological competitive advantage
Necmi Karagozoglu (Sacramento, California, USA) 335

Formal and informal networks in the UK medical equipment industry
Brian Shaw (Oxford, UK) 349

Options for increasing competitiveness, quality and productivity: the case of the Brazilian computer industry
M. Angela Campelo de Melo, T. Diana L.v.A. de Macedo-Soares and Paulo Jacinto Pastor-Braga (Rio de Janeiro, Brazil) 367

Managing international technology transfer negotiation: a social exchange perspective
Liming Zhao (Tuscaloosa, Alabama, USA) and N. Mohan Reddy (Cleveland, Ohio, USA) 383

Number 7

Refereed papers

Adopting new technologies: an entrepreneurial act
Yves-Chantal Gagnon and Jean-Marie Toulouse (Montreal, Canada) 411

An interregional analysis of venture capital and technology funding in the UK
Heather I.M. Wilson (Auckland, New Zealand) 425

A framework for managing communication at the R&D/Marketing interface
A.W. Pearson (Manchester, UK) and D.F. Ball (Leicester, UK) 439

A filter system for technology evaluation and selection
Chee Meng Yap and Wm. E. Souder (Huntsville, Alabama, USA) 449

Number 8

Refereed papers

Technology and the creation of value in services: a conceptual model
Jean Harvey, Élisabeth Lefebvre and Louis A. Lefebvre (Montreal, Canada) 481

Technology transfer as a learning and developmental process: an analysis of Norwegian programmes on technology transfer
Morten Levin (Trondheim, Norway) 497

The success potential of international R&D cooperation
Thorsten Teichert (Kiel, Germany) 519

Issues in management information systems planning
Yash P. Gupta (Denver, Colorado, USA) and Tor Guimaraes (Cookeville, Tennessee, USA) 533